The premium in respect of this risk is to be paid to the placing broker within fourteen (14) days of the inception date of the insurance contract. For this purpose alone the placing broker will be deemed to be insurers' agent.

In the event that payment is not made within this period, all cover under this insurance will automatically be cancelled ab initio and be deemed to have never been in effect.

Upon cancellation of this insurance, the insured will deliver immediately to the placing broker any policy of insurance or other policy document or evidence confirming the existence of this insurance, for onward transmission to insurers and will advise to any person who had been notified of its existence, of the cancellation of this insurance.

All Other Terms and Conditions Remain Unaltered

In consideration of the insured having paid the premium shown in the schedule, coverage provided by this insurance is subject to the following terms, conditions, exclusions and definitions, and is based on information contained in a written proposal, bearing the date stated in the schedule, together with any other details provided, insurers:-.

1.1 Insuring Clause

agree to indemnify the insured, for the amount of any claim including claimant's costs and expenses up to the indemnity limit, first made against the insured and notified to insurers during the policy period in respect of any legal liability, which arises out of any negligent act, error or omission, in consequence of the exercise and conduct of the business by the insured and/or by others acting on behalf of the insured.

1.2 Defence Costs

will also indemnify the insured for defence costs where such costs have been incurred with insurers' prior written consent. Such defence costs are payable in addition to the indemnity limit.

In the event that a settlement is made with any party in excess of the amount of the indemnity limit, insurers' liability in respect of defence costs will be in the same proportion that the indemnity limit bears to the sum which would be payable but for the restriction of the indemnity limit.

EXTENSIONS

The following extensions are granted as part of this insurance and are subject to observance of the conditions, exclusions and definitions, together with any other endorsed terms:-.

2.1 Loss of or Damage to Documents or Data

In the event of physical loss of or damage to documents or the loss of or damage to electronic data, discovered to be lost, damaged or destroyed during the policy period, the insured is indemnified for any claim or reasonable and necessary costs and expenses incurred in replacing, restoring or reconstituting any documents or data, which are the property of the insured or in the insured's care, custody or control.

This extension is subject to an indemnity limit of £50,000 in the aggregate for all losses and an excess of £250 each and every claim. However, where the excess shown in the schedule is less than £250 each and every claim then the excess shown in the schedule will apply to this extension.

2.2 Infringement of Intellectual Property

The insured is indemnified for reasonable professional or legal costs and expenses incurred with insurers' prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld), in the defence of any injunction and/or proceedings in respect of infringement or alleged infringement of any intellectual property rights, including but not limited to copyright or patents, including electronic format, vested in or otherwise enjoyed by the insured.

This extension is subject to an indemnity limit of £250,000 in the aggregate including defence costs and expenses, for all losses hereunder and will not be payable in addition to the indemnity limit. An excess of £1,000 each and every claim, applicable to defence costs and expenses, will apply in respect of this extension.

Any amount payable under this extension will be part of and not in addition to the indemnity limit specified in the schedule.

2.3 Self-employed Persons

The insured is indemnified for the liability devolving upon them arising out of the use of self-employed or contract hire persons in connection with the business. The use of individual persons need not be disclosed to insurers, but details of payments to such persons, must be declared to insurers at renewal of this insurance. For the purpose of this insurance such persons are deemed to be employees of the insured.

2.4 Indemnity to Employees, Former Employees and/or Consultants

Employees or former employees of the insured are indemnified in respect of any claim made against them during the policy period, which arises out of the exercise and conduct of the business.

Former partners, former directors or former employees of the insured who have continued as consultants to the insured and such persons who were formerly consultants to the insured are indemnified in respect of any claim made against them during the policy period, which arises out of the exercise and conduct of the business.

The insured is indemnified, in addition to the indemnity limit, for any defence costs incurred with the prior written consent of insurers in the defence of any criminal proceedings against the insured, or any employee, arising from alleged breach of any United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland statutory regulation relating to building or construction works where such alleged breach arises out of the exercise and conduct of the business in the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland by the insured and/or by others acting on behalf of the insured.

This extension (only) is subject to the following provisions:-

- 2.5.1 the circumstances giving rise to the proceedings could otherwise give rise to indemnity under this insurance, and
- 2.5.2 in the reasonable belief of insurers the defence of such proceedings would assist in the defence of any claim against the insured arising from such circumstances
- 2.5.3 any subsequent or concurrent civil action arising out of a proceeding notified under this extension will be subject to the claims conditions (see 4.2) and will be deemed to be a circumstance under the terms of this insurance
- 2.5.4 any appeal against the outcome of any initial proceedings will be deemed to be “proceedings” for the purposes of this extension
- 2.5.5 insurers will not be liable under this extension for the payment of any fines, penalties, punitive, multiple or exemplary damages

- 2.6.1 no person committing such fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission will be entitled to indemnity
- 2.6.2 the insured will not be entitled to indemnity where any claim or circumstance arising from any fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission is committed by any director of the insured or by any person after the discovery in relation to that person of cause for suspicion of fraud or dishonesty
- 2.6.3 any monies which but for such fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission would be due from the insured to the person committing such act, or any monies held by the insured and belonging to such person, will be deducted from any amount payable under this insurance.

CLAIMS CONDITIONS

The following claims conditions apply to this insurance:-

4.1 Conditions Precedent to Liability

All conditions contained in this section are deemed to be conditions precedent to liability.

4.2 Discovery of a Claim or Circumstance

If, during the policy period, the insured:

- 4.2.1 receives notice of any claim other than any claim provided for in 4.2.2 and 4.6.4, the insured will give notice (see 4.3) to insurers as soon as practicable
- 4.2.2 receives a Letter of Claim, the insured will give early notice (see 4.3) to insurers, but in any event within seven (7) working days from receipt of such Letter of Claim and not later than expiry of the policy period
- 4.2.3 becomes aware of any circumstance, the insured will give notice (see 4.3) to insurers of such circumstance as soon as practicable

Insurers agree that any such circumstance notified to them during the policy period and which subsequently gives rise to a claim after expiry of this insurance will be deemed to be a claim first made during the policy period.

4.3 Notice

Notice to insurers under condition 4.2 will be deemed to have been properly made if received in writing by the persons shown in the schedule.

4.4 Admission of Liability

In the event of a claim or the discovery of any circumstance, the insured will not admit liability and no admission, offer, promise or payment will be made by the insured without insurers' prior written consent.

4.5 Conduct of Claims

Following notification of a claim or of any circumstance, insurers will be entitled if they so desire to take over and conduct in the name of the insured the investigation, defence or settlement of any such matter. The insured will co-operate with and give all such assistance as insurers may reasonably require.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if the insured and insurers cannot agree a common course of action with regard to the contesting of any legal proceedings (whether defence or prosecution), the dispute will be resolved by the operation of condition 4.3.

4.6 Adjudication

If during the policy period the insured receives a notice as described in paragraph 4.6.4 and such notice is in accordance with any of:

- 4.6.1 The Scheme for Construction Contracts (England & Wales) 1998
- 4.6.2 The Scheme for Construction Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 1998
- 4.6.3 The Construction Contracts Act 2013 (Republic of Ireland or any Adjudication Clause or Rules contained in a Contract, provided that the terms of the Adjudication Clause are no more onerous to the insured than the terms contained within the regulations referred to in 4.6.1 and 4.6.3 above

Then the insured must:

- 4.6.4 notify Beale & Co within the policy period and within two (2) working days of receipt of any Notice of Intention to Adjudicate, Notice of Adjudication, Referral Notice or any Adjudication Notice pursuant to Contract. Receipt of notification by Beale & Co will be considered as notification to insurers. All other circumstances, claims and material facts must be notified to insurers in accordance with Condition 4.3
- 4.6.5 not agree to accept the decision of the Adjudicator as finally determining the dispute, without insurers' prior written consent
- 4.6.6 satisfy insurers that any liability incurred by them by virtue of an Adjudicator's decision and for which indemnity is being sought would otherwise be the subject of indemnity under this insurance.

The insured agrees that insurers will be entitled to pursue legal arbitration, or other proceedings in the name and on behalf of the insured, to challenge, appeal, open up or amend any decision, direction, award or the exercise of any power of the Adjudicator or stay the enforcement of any decision, direction, award or exercise of any power of the Adjudicator. The insured will give all such assistance as insurers may reasonably require in relation to such proceedings.

For the avoidance of doubt, this extension does not in any way limit insurers' right of subrogation.

Notification made under this Extension will be subject to all other policy terms and conditions, save to the extent that those terms and conditions are varied by this extension.

4.7 Several Liability

Insurers' obligations under insurances to which they subscribe are several and not joint and are limited solely to the extent of their individual subscriptions. Insurers are not responsible for the subscription of any co-subscribing insurer who for any reason does not satisfy all or part of their obligations.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

The following general conditions apply to this insurance:-

5.1 Retroactive Date

Where a retroactive date is specified in the schedule, this insurance will not indemnify the insured for any claim notified under the terms of this insurance and arising out of the exercise and conduct of the business prior to the said retroactive date.

5.2 Subrogation

If any payment is made under the terms of this insurance, the insured grants to insurers all rights of recovery against any parties from whom a recovery may be made, but the insured will take all reasonable steps to preserve such rights. However, insurers agree to waive any rights of recovery against any employee or former employee, self employed person or consultant of the insured unless liability has resulted in whole or part from any act or omission on the part of such persons which is dishonest, fraudulent, criminal (other than in respect of 2.7) or malicious.

5.3 Specialist Designers and/or Consultants

It is an express requirement that:-

- 5.3.1 all specialist designers and/or consultants, appointed by the insured, acting on the insured's behalf or for whom the insured are responsible, carry Professional Indemnity insurance, for a limit not less than that shown in the schedule, during the period of this insurance, and
- 5.3.2 the insured have satisfied themselves of its existence and extent of cover. Any failure to comply with this warranty may entitle insurers to decline to provide indemnity under the terms of the insurance.

5.4 Contractual Terms, Collateral Warranties and Joint Ventures

Insurers will not require construction contracts, collateral warranties, duty of care or joint venture agreements, letters of engagement, or terms of appointment to be shown to, or agreed by, them. However, the limitations appearing in extensions 2.3 and in exclusion 3.7 will apply in respect of liabilities incurred by the insured, in consequence of them signing such documents.

5.5 Law Applicable

Unless specifically agreed to the contrary this insurance shall be subject to English Law.

5.6 Insurance Disputes

Any dispute or difference between the insured and insurers arising from this insurance will be referred to Queen's Counsel of the English Bar, to be mutually agreed between insurers and the insured, or any other party as may be mutually agreed. In the event of disagreement regarding the appointment, the Chairman of the Bar Council will appoint a suitable party. The findings of the agreed or appointed party will be binding on insurers and the insured and the costs of such an exercise will be allocated by the agreed or appointed party on a fair and equitable basis.

However for insured firms domiciled in the Republic of Ireland this contract will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Ireland.

Any dispute or difference between the insured and insurers arising from this insurance will be referred to arbitration before a sole arbitrator, to be mutually agreed between insurers and the insured, or any other party as may be mutually agreed. In the event of disagreement regarding the appointment, the Chairman for the time being of the Bar Council of Ireland will appoint a suitable party. The findings of the agreed or appointed party will be binding on insurers and the insured, and the cost of such an exercise will be allocated by the agreed or appointed party on a fair and equitable basis.

5.7 Cancellation

This policy may be cancelled at any time by insurers or the insured, by either party giving the other thirty (30) days' notice in writing, to their last known address or registered office (if a company) and the premium will be adjusted on a pro rata basis.

5.8 Claim Settlements

Insurers may at any time pay to the insured in connection with any claims or series of claims under this insurance the indemnity limit (less any sums already paid) or any lesser sum for which such claims can be settled and upon such payment the insurers will not be under any further liability in respect of such claims except for costs and expenses incurred prior to such payments and with insurers' prior written consent.

If a payment exceeding the indemnity limit has to be made to dispose of a claim the liability of insurers to pay all costs fees and expenses in that connection will be limited to such of the said costs and expenses as the indemnity limit bears to the amount paid to dispose of a claim.

5.9 Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

Notwithstanding the provisions of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or any equivalent legislation in the Republic of Ireland, and for the avoidance of doubt:

5.9.1 this insurance is not intended to confer any enforceable rights upon any third party, whether or not insurers acknowledge an interest of such third party

5.9.2 the parties to this insurance will be entitled to rescind or vary such without the consent of any third party, whether or not insurers acknowledge an interest of such third party

5.9.3 in the event of proceedings by a third party against insurers for the enforcement of a term of this insurance insurers will have available to them the option of any defence or set off, which would have been available if the proceedings had been brought by the insured.

DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATIONS

Various words and phrases have a standard meaning within this insurance and such definitions and interpretations are so set out below. Headings and notes are for information purposes only and are not to be construed as part of this insurance. The following words and phrases are used in this insurance. In certain instances the words may be used in their plural or singular form. Wherever they appear they are deemed to have the meaning set out below:-

6.1 Insured

Will mean:-

- 6.1.1 the practice
- 6.1.2 the present or future partners and present or future directors of the practice
- 6.1.3 former partners and former directors of the practice in respect of claims made during the policy period but arising out of the exercise and conduct of the business during the period whilst they were receiving salary or financial benefit from the practice
- 6.1.4 the estate, heirs and executors of those parties mentioned in 6.1.1 - 6.1.3.

6.2 The Practice

Will mean the professional practice(s) whether corporate, sole trader or partnership named as the insured in the schedule including any predecessors in business.

The definition also includes any practice or business for which the insured is legally liable in consequence of the acquisition of such practice or business prior to inception of this insurance provided insurers have been notified in writing of the existence of such other practice or business and insurers have agreed to insure such entities.

Any location of the practice is included within the definition unless expressly stated otherwise.

6.3 Business

Will mean advice given and/or service performed as detailed in the schedule. Where the insured is liable for a sub-consultant the definition of business is extended to include any other professional activities of the sub-consultant for which the insured is liable.

In addition, the definition of business is extended to include personal appointments of any party falling within the definition of the insured, except the acceptance of any directorship or trusteeship in any other company, provided the fees, if any, for such activities are credited to the practice and such activities are related directly or indirectly to the activities listed in the schedule and the individual is qualified or experienced to carry out such work.

6.4 Indemnity Limit

Will mean the sum shown in the schedule which is available to indemnify the insured in respect of each claim, provided always that where more than one claim arises from the same original cause or source all such claims will be deemed to be one claim and only one indemnity limit will be payable in respect of the aggregate of all such claims.

6.5 Defence Costs

Will mean all costs and expenses incurred in the investigation, defence or settlement of any claim or potential claim and/or the cost of representation at any enquiry or other proceedings which have a direct or indirect relevance to the investigation, defence or settlement of any matter notified under the terms of this insurance.

- 6.6 Excess
Will mean the first amount of each claim which is payable by the insured. Where, however, a series of claims is made during the policy period, which arises from the same original cause or source then, only one single excess will apply in respect of all claims resulting from that original cause or source. This amount is payable, before insurers make any payment.
- 6.7 Geographical Limits
